Process

Step 1: Candidates are nominated or may nominate themselves for a leadership position on the NCMS Board of Directors and NC American Medical Association Delegation (click here to view Nomination Form).

Step 2: Once a candidate submits their nomination form, they will receive an email confirmation and made aware of any follow-up if needed.

Step 3: Upon careful review of submitted materials, the Nominating and Leadership Development Committee (NLDC) will select candidates to be interviewed. Candidates will be notified via email by May 16, 2022 if they are selected for an interview. Interviews will take place via videoconference on May 21, 2022.

Step 4: The NLDC will present the initial slate of candidates to NCMS membership on July 29, 2022, including a nomination form for Specialty Society-Component Society nominations. Specialty Society-Component Society nominations are due by August 12, 2022.

Step 5: Following any additional candidate interviews, the NLDC will select a final slate of candidates to be approved by the NCMS Board of Directors that will then be brought before the NCMS membership for a vote.

Step 6: The voting period for the elected positions will begin for all Active NCMS Members (Members who have paid 2022 dues) on September 29, 2022 and will end on October 13, 2022. Election results will be announced at the NCMS Annual Business Meeting on October 14, 2022.

All nominations and any information collected as part of the nominating process is strictly confidential.
